George's Marvellous Medicine
Chapter 4 - Animal Pills

Answer the following questions in complete sentences.

1. Why did the author choose to title chapter 4 'Animal Pills'?

The author chose to title chapter 4 'Animal Pills' because George added animal pills to his marvellous medicine.

2. Where did George find the animal medicines to add to his concoction?

George found the animal medicines to add to his concoction on the medicine shelf in the dusty old shed.

3. Name three of the animals the medicines were for.

Three of the animals the medicines were for are cows, pigs, and sheep. (Horses and chickens are also correct.)

4. What do you predict will happen in the next chapter?

Answers will vary.

Example: I think George will cook his marvellous medicine because some of the animal pills didn't melt.
